Ariela Group Publications, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.In my successful Energy Psychology practice I've worked with many EFT Energy Therapy Practitioners as well as licensed Health Practitioners who did not know how to structure their practice and to support it with comfortable communication and underlying coaching principles. They have begged me over the years to write a special manual or Guidebook for them. and here it is! my 3rd published coach training manual. this time for practitioners who use EFT Energy Therapy with their clients or patients. The purpose of the Coaching Guidebook is to provide a coaching foundation or curriculum that can be used by Health Wellness practitioners or seasoned EFT Energy Therapy practitioners. Applying the many concepts, exercises, scripts with clients or patients will provide structure to the practice protocol and ultimately will empower both the practitioner and the person served. Using concepts that come from traditional coaching and blending them with specifics of an energy therapy practice, this guidebook includes two tracts. Tract I: a body-related section to address working with clients or patients who present with physical issues, and Tract II: related to all clients who present with emotional, psychological, conscious transformation needs. The two tracts work hand-in-hand and offer specifics for the different types of clients. Seven Appendices offer forms and exercises to help you save time as you build your practice through quality service.
