Resource Publications (CA), 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Glimpsing life out of the corner of the eye, Raymond Barfield s poems in Life in the Blind Spot seek that space where direct vision is elusive, but essential. Ray Barfield s poems are hot ice, metaphor and metaphysics. His style is beautifully controlled and then he lets go at just the right moment. Wonderful. --Katia Kapovich Raymond Barfield s poems are essential to the age we live in. These philosophically searching, lucidly sensual poems drive at the heart of our understanding. With mindful grace, and suspecting / more than the world to be the case , Barfield brings to mind our sense of the variations of history , the many signs and moments that flicker and converge in the various single flame of our existence. --Ben Mazer You just have to read one poem. Driving .to realize that Raymond Barfield is a great American poet. You read other poems and you realize that he is more than that. You put the book down and wonder how you ever lived without it. --Joe Green Raymond Barfield is a pediatric oncologist at Duke University. He has published several books of philosophy and poetry, as well as a novel called The Book of Colors. He directs the Medical Humanities program in the Trent Center for Bioethics, Medical Humanities, and the History of Medicine at Duke.
