Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This is a powerful and practical book on Christian Spiritual Growth. The material presented in this book will appeal to a wide range of readers within the larger body of Christianity, across many denominational lines, who accept the complete deity and unity of the Holy Trinity. While avoiding many of the often controversial points of denominational theology, the author boldly takes a stand against materialism and what are often called prosperity ministries with so called name it claim it doctrines. The emphasis of this book is on drawing ever closer to God through the practice of classical spiritual disciplines, concentrating on internal spiritual development and building a relationship with the personage of the Holy Trinity. To become true disciples of Christ, we must become less, that He may become more. This book is designed for both individual and group study and includes study guides at the end of each chapter - thus is easily adapted for groups without the need for additional workbooks. The book includes extensive use of Scripture reference as well as quotations from mature Christians and well known classical authors such as Thomas a Kempis, Oswald Chambers, Charles Spurgeon, CS Lewis, A.W. Tozer, Jonathan Edwards, J.I Packer, Andrew Murray, Dr. Charles Stanley, Martin Luther Watchman Nee, Matthew Henry, and many more. The guides at the end of each chapter include many recommendations for further reading and study, as well as Summary Statements for contemplation, prayer and thoughtful consideration. There are nineteen chapters in this book which include: Abundant Living, Loving God, Spirituality, individual chapters on God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit. The author then moves on to discuss obstacles to spiritual growth such as inflated...
