Excerpt from The Brahmo Somaj: Discourses and Writings God is with us, and if you wish to see what the living God is doing In the midst of a great nation, you ought to see and study this movement in all its bearings. We have no earthly support; we have no temporal resources to depend upon. Prayer is our strength; prayer is the agency to which we look up for our salvation. If we want knowledge, to whom do we go Not to this book, not to that book, but to the Lord in the temple of the heart. We are kneeling at His feet. Humbly do we cast up our eyes in order to watch with anxious hearts for the revelation that He alone can give And have we been disappointed? No; I assure you that we have never been disappointed If we did not pray well He would not hear us, for prayer, unless it be sincere and earnest, is never. Heard. It IS heard whenever it is sincere. As sinners we have approached Him, conscious of our sins and wickedness. Heavy laden with iniquity, before His gates have we often stood waiting for His revelation, waiting for the assistance that cometh to the redeemed in the Lord and at last, after many moments, perhaps many hours, perhaps many days of anxious watchfulness, the Lord spoke, and when the Lord spoke the sinner felt that his sins were gone, that there was no longer anything like heaviness of heart, that he could rest in the Lord's strength at the Lord's feet. And he glorified the Lord, and he went forth into the light, in order to bring...
