Teresian Press, Oxford, 2014. Soft Cover. Book Condition: New. First Edition. John of the Cross, a Doctor of the Church, is an indispensable guide to prayer and the spiritual life for anyone who wishes for a deeper relationship with God and for all who guide others along the way of prayer. Yet John's prose writings are lengthy and often perceived as inaccessible. That is why these articles by Fr Iain Matthew, OCD, previously published in "Mount Carmel: A Review of Spiritual Life" and reissued now in a single volume in response to popular demand, are a rare treasure. Written in a style both lyrical and direct, they are immediately accessible and speak to our human condition. They tell of four "Seasons of Prayer": that prayer is an encounter with God's presence dwelling within us; that this meeting occurs precisely at the place of our greatest vulnerability and need; that here Christ awaits us, to anoint us in the Holy Spirit; and ultimately, that our lives will become a song of praise - as we are caught up in the wonder of God and held in his limitless embrace. This book will speak to anyone who is seeking to integrate their daily life, their aspirations and their needs, with an intimate relationship with God: a divine adventure that can bring us inner healing and transformation - more than we could possibly hope for, yet which, John shows us, is truly within our reach. Fr Iain Matthew, OCD is author of the highly acclaimed "The Impact of God: Soundings from St John of the Cross". He has extensive experience as a spiritual director, in youth work and in giving retreats on the spirituality of Carmel and its saints. 93 pages.
