

Our Police; A History of the Baltimore Force from the First Watchman to the Latest Appointee

By De Francias Folsom

Rarebooksclub.com, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 246 x 189 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1888 Excerpt: .and policeman Pumphrey heard of it from another officer. A few minutes later as he was patrolling Dover street near Green, it being then half-past five o'clock in the morning and dark, he saw a young negro standing in the second story window of a house smoking a cigar. He thought this a rather suspicious occurrence, and he determined to investigate the circumstance as soon as the negro left his house. It was ten o'clock before he saw the fellow go out. Then under pretence of wishing to inspect the sanitary condition of the house, officer Pumphrey got into the room in which he had seen the negro smoking that morning. There he found on the bed two blankets which had been stolen from Broderick Brothers, and also a number of other articles, proceeds of the same burglary. Pumphrey waited until the thief returned...

DOWNLOAD

READ ONLINE

[6.67 MB]

Reviews

A top quality publication along with the typeface applied was exciting to read through. It can be rally interesting through reading through time. Your life period will be enhance once you full reading this article book.

-- Prof. Demond McClure

A top quality ebook and the font used was fascinating to read through. It is writter in easy terms and not confusing. Its been written in an remarkably easy way in fact it is simply after i finished reading through this publication through which actually altered me, alter the way i believe.

-- Roberto Block