Pop Mythology: Collected Essays (Paperback)

By Laura A Shamas

Telemachus Press, LLC, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .POP MYTHOLOGY: COLLECTED ESSAYS by Laura A. Shamas, Ph.D., is a collection of twenty-three essays about mythology and modern life; seventeen were previously published, plus six new ones and an introduction. From casual to scholarly, the essays vary in tone and topic: from profiles of gods and goddesses; to thoughts on myth in branding; archetypes in film; myth and social media; and more. The author's expertise as a mythology speaker and as a longtime myth consultant is represented in this collection. The book is divided into two sections: Pantheon Pieces and Myth Miscellany. Essay titles in Part One, Pantheon Pieces, include: Aphrodite and Ecology, Apollo Updated, Pieces of Athena (and Her Head), The Hera Factor in Hillary's Run, The Holiness of Health [Asclepius Hygieia], and Martha Hearts Hestia. Topics covered in Part Two, Myth Miscellany, include games shows and romance, courtly love, the end times, the Occupy Movement, the Oscars, creation myth and outer space, a meditation on Revolution in the I Ching, and Twitter. This second section also includes a how-to approach to myth adaptation that Shamas has...
