

The Depth to Delve. Deep (Rote Writer)

By Rote Writer

Rote Writer Publishing. Paperback. Condition: New. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 1.1in. He slips through the brush and in no time is seen sitting on the bench surprised by it all. In the shadow of Old Sarum he sits. Salisbury is in sight. It slopes slowly from the old to the new. Now hungry and not too sure what to do about the rue he concludes. . . I can live with the hunger for a bit. . . but the thirst I cant. He finds a thrown water bottle and heads into town down a road sloping into Salisbury. Just short of the borough, he passes by a park and spots a fountain. He doesnt think he just drinks, with thirsty urgency. He rinses then fills up his bottle. Rote returns to his hideaway without even venturing into the town proper. Hes pickled by the predicament. Hes embarrassed. His pride is really riding him. Hes unable to make eye contact with people passing by. Back at the bench he crawls back into the bush when no one is looking. He pulls out his orange plastic bag and his basically brand new sleeping bag that after last night looks old. Its...
