Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.The man is the only creature who, being of the species homo sapiens, not also brings a pre-determination and/or a complete nature and finished in itself and, therefore, not to be carried out, due to a lack of a quality education, he can also throw-if it is not able to be everything that, precisely by being a man, by education, he could and/or may come to be. This is, in other words, man can, by education, humanizing, and without it, animalize in pejorative sense and minimized the word. In this sense, one of the main forms of animalization of man (in western societies contemporary capitalist), have been through their expropriation (take it to the property), to sell its called productive power of labor, generator of wealth, by a very low and/or negligible value, in that labor market. This book, in this way, it will propose a, starting from a history of the changes on the meaning of work (in societies ancient Greek, in the middle ages, modern and contemporary), also demonstrate that, even at the dawn of the 21st century, the different men, in condition of proletarians of capitalist societies western and/or are being processed, so self-consented, in virtue of the internalization in their psyches of Individualist values and Meritocracy of capitalism: A- In wage slaves of capital; B- In irrational beings, through cauterization in their minds, of two major illusions: 1-The first, internalizing the idea that labor, the work said employed grunt, in which a said boss, is not only the single said valid and/or ethical, but also the said single that really dignifies man (and not those also originated from the exercise and/or the human act...
