Many Christians are afraid and that arresting fear comes from their inability to field tough questions. They are frightened of rejection. If you want to share your faith, like most Christians do, but just do not have the confidence, this book is for you. I guarantee if you read this book entirely and complete the simple exercises, you will have no fear about sharing Christ and will want to dive in right away! Why wait? There is no more important activity than sharing the gospel. You would already be sharing Christ if you knew how to, we all would. Don't let another day slip away without learning these simple, Biblical steps. The gospel sharing tips in this short book offers you the confidence and a game plan, derived from scripture...
