

Survival Medicine: Handbook to the Prepper's Long Term Survival Guide (Paperback)

By Graham Higgins

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Are you all-set for the next natural disaster, apocalypse, or crisis? If you've planned, you may have the essentials like non-perishable foods, water, flashlights, and maybe a first-aid kit. While these things are great, you may need to know and store more when long-term crisis hits. So, what do you do? Many people do not realize that a first-aid kit is not sufficient for many survival situations, especially those that last for an extended period of time. The problem is that if you need medicine, you are not going to be able to find it. You cannot go to the doctor and it's likely that your local pharmacy has already been raided for supplies. It is in these trying times where survival is essential. What Exactly is Survival Medicine? Survival medicine is the knowledge and ability to care for everything from small scratches to serious injuries in an emergency. It is a skill that can save you, your family, and anyone else you may encounter that needs help. Why Survival Medicine is Important Many people look at survival medicine...
