

Iggy's House

By Judy Blume

Atheneum Books, 1900. TRADE PAPERBACK. Condition: New. Athenium Books for Young Readers, Paperback, 2016, Book Condition: New, Iggy is gone. She's moved to Tokyo. And now Winnie, her best friend, is alone on Grove Street, cracking her gum and wondering how she's going to make it through the rest of summer. Then the Garbers move into Iggy's house and Winnie is thrilled. They have three kids. But the Garbers are black, and Grove Street is white and always has been. Winnie, a welcoming committee of one, sets out to make a good impression, showing the Garbers what a good neighbor she is. That's how the trouble starts. The Garbers don't want a "good neighbor." They want a friend. Book.
