The Assembly and Boots and Saddles were sounded by Bugler E. Frank Smith on the battered bugle used by him with the regiment in 1864-6s from the Wilderness to Appomattox. The President, Major A. C. Houghton, was in the chair. In his opening address he said in part: Comrades of the 2nd Regiment and 25th Battery, I have seen times when you were lined up and looked more dangerous than now on many battlefields of the war. And although our meeting is of a different character--joyous and reminiscent--yet since the days of 1861-65, the battles we have fought in life's campaigns have made us more than ever veteran fighters. In all these battles of life I know that the men of tried courage who stood shoulder to shoulder in the old days, have borne an honorable part, and God, in whom we then trusted, has been with us through all these years. We will not forget to acknowledge Him. The Reverend Donald M. Grant will offer prayer. INVOCATION By Rev. Donald M. Grant Almighty God, the God of our Fathers, whom we know and love, we approach Thy throne with reverence and godly fear. We recognize Thy hand in all the past years. We gather from our homes in this reunion, and we thank God as we remember how He was with us in all the years of the war. Help us today as we remember those dark years to...
