Albert Nolen, our deaf-blind pupil, who had been Pl WY) interesting member of our school since 1886, finished his school course with the close of the school year in June, 1897 BOY deaf, and having lost sight when five years old through him fever, he came to us at the age of twelve years without any knowledge of words, and with only such ideas as, gained tlrough the sense of sight before he lost it, had not faded from his mind in the seven years of darkness through which he had g1 0P9 l all ideas gained through the sense of touch. The first stePS 1 h 5 education and the opening of communication between 1115 1 m prisoned mind and the world about him were undertakeii nI accomplished by Miss Kate c. Camp. With tact and un f=n11 E Patience and perseverance she succeeded in awakening his lr iiiant faculties. and from that time he was eager to learn. Alt. three months Miss Camp resigned and was succeeded bl Ml Flora L. Noyes, a graduate of our school, who remained him to the end of his school course. The warm sy1nPBTll.l 0 teacher with her pupil and the intimate relation between then 1 almost like one soul in two bodies---was something beautiful to see. Considering all the obstacles in Albert s path he made remarkable progress. His ability to understand and to use be English language surpassed that of a majority of...
