Excerpt from In Memoriam: The Reverend Henry Nitchie Cobb, D.D., Corresponding Secretary, Board of Foreign Missions, the Reformed Church in America, 1882-1910 Interest in the churches at home in the work abroad, and in his willing and most helpful identification with every movement which aimed at the enlightenment and enlistment of the constituency at home or the expansion of the work abroad. During Dr. Cobb s secretaryship the work in all our missions greatly advanced, the number of missionaries trebled and the receipts increased almost fourfold. It was during his incumbency that the Arabian Mission, which was organized in 1889, grew to be one of our strongest mis sions. He officially visited our missions in Asia in 1892, and again in 1904, receiving the warmest welcome from the missionaries, greatly endearing himself to the Oriental Christian constituency and by his valuable counsel greatly strengthening the efficiency of the work in every country which he visited. Hence the mourning for Dr. Cobb is not limited to us who were brothers to him in the homeland where he inspired and led the Church...
