Excerpt: . . . MARY QUEEN OF SCOTS. Mary Queen of Scotland, daughter of James V. was born in the royal palace of Linlithgow, on the 8th of December, 1542. Her mother was Mary, the eldest daughter of Claude, Duke of Guise, and widow of Louis, Duke of Longueville. Her father dying a few days after her birth, she scarcely existed before she was hailed queen. At an early age Mary was conveyed to France, where she received her education in the court of Henry II. She soon acquired a knowledge of the Latin tongue, and became a proficient in the French, Italian, and Spanish languages. She walked, danced, and rode with uncommon grace, and was qualified by nature as well as art to attain to distinction in painting, poetry, and music. Whilst Mary resided in the court of Henry II. her personal charms made a deep impression...
