Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Western Reserve and Northern Ohio Historical Society, No; 30, March, 1876, Vol. 30: Early Settlement of Warren, Trumbull Co., Ohio The writer of the following notes on the history of Trumbull county, was, on the 10th of April, 1800, a lad thirteen years and nine months old. On that day, he left Fallowfield township, Washington county, Pennsylvania, for the Western Reserve. Passed by land to Beaver town, detained there three days; passed on crossed the territorial line south-east of Poland, 17th; and arrived at Mahoning, near the afterward village of Warren, 19th, 4 P. M. He believes on that day there were not more than 20,000 inhabitants (exclusive of French settlements on the Mississippi, Detroit and Mackinaw,) on the old North-west Territory, notwithstanding the census of 1800 gives 45,065. The usual incidents attended the journey until crossing the south line, on 41 N. L. From there to Yellow Creek, in Poland, was a very muddy road called The Swamp. In Poland, a settlement was begun, Judge Turhand Kirtland and family living on the east side, and Jonathan Fowler and wife, a sister of the Judge, keeping a tavern on the west side. From thence our way was through woods to where was a family by the name of Stevens, who had been there three years or more. The wife s name was Hannah. With her, our family had been acquainted. She said she had been there three years, without seeing the face of a white woman. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
