I will also share with you my ups and downs in the music business and also my health. The times I should have been taken care of business and not doing so. Not taken care of my health like I should. How I had the opportunity to go big time in the music business and not doing so. How my passion for the music moved me but my passion for the opposite sex stopped me. How I went from Country Music to Rock Roll then back to Country and gospel. Then how Christ came into my life and changed me into someone I wasn't prepared for. As you read this book you will know how my life has change from not so good to good. I hope you enjoy my pitiful life as a King. Les (ELVIS) Williams.
