Belarus Free Theatre: New Plays from Central Europe: The VII International Contest of Contemporary Drama (Paperback)

By Belarus Free Theatre

Oberon Books Ltd, United Kingdom, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Bilingual. Language: English,Russian . Brand New Book. The International Contest of Contemporary Drama (ICCD) was set up by BFT to encourage new writing and promote Belarusian cultural identity on an international stage with the participation of artists around Europe. Belarusian playwrights, banned within their own country but recognised for their work outside, have the opportunity to show their works in Belarus. At the same time it includes the work of foreign playwrights in this international cultural context, which Belarus would have its place in for the first time. The ICCD has produced such playwrights as Anna Yablonskaya, Aleksey Shcherbak, and Pavel Pryazhko whose plays have been produced at The Royal Court Theatre and brothers Mikhail and Vyatcheslav Durnenkov who have written for The Royal Shakespeare Company. The contest, one of the top three of its kind in central Europe, has enjoyed success since its conception in 2005, garnering critical acclaim, but was discontinued since 2010 due to a lack of funds. 2014 is the first year this contest has been held in a free country. In previous years it has been held underground in Belarus, in hiding from the authorities. BFT...

Reviews

Complete manual! Its such a great study. It really is writter in straightforward phrases rather than hard to understand. You are going to like the way the article writer create this publication.
