Excerpt: .by the increasing numbers seeking residence in the dormitories. The Commons has just completed its most successful year in that the patrons of the Commons have very generally approved of the management of the dining hall and for the first time in many years it has been found possible to give satisfactory supplies upon the table and yet not involve the University in a loss. Field Secretary.- The University was fortunate in securing the services of Dr. William J. Hawkins, nine years President of the State Normal School at Warrensburg, as Field Secretary. Dr. Hawkins brought to his work an intimate acquaintance with the high schools of the city, knowing personally many of the superintendents and principals and being familiar also with the conditions which prevail in education throughout the state. As President of the Normal School he also was instrumental in locating superintendents and...
