Balboa Press, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.It was just a dream. It was just a dream, I kept saying to myself as I tried to slow my breathing and calm down enough to get back to sleep. But my mind kept searching out that image; Newlywed Widow. I couldn't shake the feeling that this dream wasn't like any other nightmare I'd had before. I hated feeling so certain. After a lifetime of premonitions, I knew this gut feeling so well, that there was no denying it. The Lady in the Mirror told me about this when I was six years old. So, it must be true. My mind kept going back to the time of my first encounter with the Lady in the Mirror. Her stories of an innocence unlived show a remarkable resiliency and wisdom within a young girl's spirit. In Newlywed Widow, Beverly Short reveals her childhood spent exploring her visionary's request for answers. Is it Fate or Exposure that makes us who we are? In every moment; life begins again. Happiness is a choice. You eat what you bring to the table. What's horrific on Monday could turn out to be a blessing on Tuesday. We can't compare pain. What if time is not linear and reincarnation is a fact? Beverly Short has spent her life unraveling the mysteries of a clairvoyant and traumatic childhood while developing her naturalborn gifts of precognition and an eidetic memory. Her down-to-earth philosophies use, Acceptance, Empathy and Forgiveness, as powerful tools in healing. She is the proud mother of two grown sons who have given her more joy than she could have ever imagined. She lives in Los Angeles, California and this...
