Ratlantis: The Rise and Fall of the Rat Race--Reloaded

By Carl Lyle Jenkins

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Judith P Niland (illustrator). Revised. 279 x 216 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In mid-1984, while hiking through the devastated wilderness surrounding Washington States deadly natural wonder, Mount St. Helens, the author of this book quite literally stumbled upon a gift from the past, a time capsule from the legendary lost civilization of Ratlantis. The contents of this amazing little cylinder are destined to shake the very foundations of contemporary anthropology, history, and religion. And they will almost unquestionably consign such heretofore untouchables as Creationism and Darwins Theory of Evolution to the ash heaps of religious and scientific literature. These incredible documents, The Ratlantis Papyri, were compiled by Professor Henry Ratwrinkle, a noted Ratlantian historian and philosopher. Professor Ratwrinkle was lamentably thrown out of the University of Ratlantis for daring to publish his supposedly crackpot theories and controversial views concerning the history of Ratlantis. He spent the rest of his life in relative obscurity, teaching at tiny Ratslop Community College which was located in a beautiful little city called Ratstoria on the Northwest coast of Ratlantis in a province of the Great State...
