Preston: In Relation to the Introduction of Water Into the City of Boston Dear Sir: - The interest which has been excited on the subject of supplying the city of Boston with pure water, has not, I presume, escaped your watchful attention; and, having had the pleasure and advantage of examining a statistical work of yours, upon another important subject, (The Vital Statistics of Boston,) and knowing the interest which you took in public affairs during the time you were a member of the Common Council, I have been led to suppose you may be in possession of facts bearing on the water question, that I have not been able to obtain, but which I deem it of the highest importance for the public to be in possession of, in order that all may form a deliberate and sound judgment, and act understandingly in relation to it, when called upon so to do.
