It was breathing for her, and I wondered how long after the machine stopped would her chest cease to move. Debbie was only thirty-three years old, and it seemed impossible that this was happening. Kathie had her head on her mother s chest when she stopped breathing and the monitor went flat. She screamed, Mommy, Mommy, please don t leave me! In that instant, the monitor started up again, as if Debbie had turned at hearing her daughter s cry and was coming back. For two weeks after her death, I had experienced such an abundance of God s Grace, it allowed me to minister to others.
