PUMPKINVILLE (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Pumpkinville. The name conjures images of a bucolic small town, perhaps in the Deep South, where life moves at a slow, leisurely pace. In reality, Pumpkinville is a town an hour outside of Los Angeles. It s Hollywood s go-to rental spot for vintage cars, costumes, and sets. Stocked with collectibles, Pumpkinville is a paper town, existing through the good graces of the entertainment industry. It s also the home of twelve-year-old Joey Rogers. A precocious child quickly growing into a handsome young man, the golden goose child actor is at the whims of his stepfather, George, who controls almost every aspect of Joey s life-right down to the types of toys and presents George s ex-wife is allowed to give her own son. George s latest project is a movie based on Roscoe Fatty Arbuckle s childhood, written by Arbuckle s one-time secretary and silent film star Holiday Fairchild-a personal hero of Joey s. When Fairchild-now in her eighties-attends a collectibles show in Anaheim, Joey knows it might be his only chance to meet his idol. He wants George to accompany him, but not to meet Holiday. Joey has made a decision about his future-and it doesn t include acting.
