Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Tax Reform for Fairness, Simplicity, and Economic Growth, Vol. 1: The Treasury Department Report to the President Dear Mr. President: I am pleased to submit the Treasury Department's Report on Fundamental Tax simplification and Reform that you requested in your State of the Union address in January. It contains proposals for a broad-based income tax that would allow us to lower marginal tax rates for individuals by an average of 20 percent and the corporate rate from 46 percent to 33 percent. The proposals would make the tax system simpler, fairer, and more economically efficient. The present U.S. income tax is complex, it is inequitable, and it interferes with economic choices of households and businesses. It is also widely perceived to be unfair. Because this perception undermines taxpayer morale, it may be as important as the actual defects of the system. In your State of the Union address, you said: To talk of meeting the present situation by increasing taxes is a Band-Aid solution which does nothing to cure an illness that has been...
