

Prophets of the Old Testament, Volume 4: The Prophets in Exile (605-536 BC) -- Daniel Ezekiel (Paperback)

By James K Crews

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . After Judah s defeat, most Jews were exiled to Babylon. Daniel and Ezekiel were among them faithfully serving God, the king and the Jewish people. DANIEL (605-535 BC) was promoted to rule with the kings of Babylon and Persia. He interpreted dreams and visions of future world kingdoms: Medo-Persia, Greece and Rome, leading up to Christ s millennial kingdom on earth. He also provided rich details of end time events in our future: the coming of a New World Order, a one world government with one economy and a single religion forced upon the world by the man we call the antichrist. Daniel describes the antichrist being defeated by the return of the Messiah and His kingdom of righteousness. Daniel also narrated stories of Jewish victories in Babylon. These stories promoted God and exalted Him above all false gods and idols. They provided vivid lessons for living as aliens in a foreign culture: serve God boldly, worship Him alone, be humble before Him and obey God and trust Him completely. EZEKIEL (593-571 BC) was also exiled to Babylon after Judah s...
