Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. MS Stephanie Clark (illustrator). Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . These six funny stories in Book 1, with their wonderfully simple and elegant illustrations will take you on some seriously funny adventures with Adam, Eve, God and Dog, and lots of crazy animal characters in the Garden of Eden. If you like storytelling, fables, tall tales, animal stories, or the Just So Stories of Rudyard Kipling and Anansi the Spider, then you will enjoy these. To be read aloud or read by yourself; either way you will enjoy the misunderstandings, plays on words and just pure stupidity that can be had within. The stories in this book are intended for children in the age range 8 to 12 and for adults who like to read with them and laugh. What was God like when he walked on the surface of the Earth in the beginning? I rather think he would have been like a very old and very eccentric hobbyist; single minded and intent on creating his world; in love with its perfections and its imperfections; constantly changing his mind and his plans; happy sometimes too, to just sit down and go with the flow. And his creations? Well of course we were just one of them and he had a purpose and a future for them all. We liked to think we were the most important ones- but maybe, just maybe, sometimes we did things and said things that really annoyed him and sometimes he chose them or the plan over us. So here is Adam; he s got a good heart, he means well, he s keen to be liked by God (and Eve) but he s hasty, accident prone and full of...
