

The Faerikyn Apocalypse (Paperback)

By J.E. Feldman

Lulu.com, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . When fairy Queen Vazra s daughter is taken for human experimentation, the fairies of the Elder Oak awaken all Faerikyn to face a war. By doing this, all fairies become infected from human contact when Princess Zana manages to return home. Finding herself shunned from her own kind, Zana follows the human road away from town and finds someone that takes her in. After gaining her trust, the princess reveals everything to her new friend. As Zana begins combat training, the fairies are overtaken by rage and murder everyone in the nearby town. Their anger spreads like a wildfire into other nearby towns until there is hardly anyone left alive in their region. At last, her mentor concludes her training and says she must search for the fairy queen. Will Zana find the courage to kill her own crazed mother to stop the Faerikyn apocalypse, or will she stay hidden with her mentor for the rest of her days?.
