Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A Plan of Preparing Teachers The State Normal School at San Francisco was established by Act of Legislature, March 22, 1899. Upon organization, its Board of Trustees recognized that the state is not in need, at present, of a larger number of persons holding certificates to teach. It was determined, therefore, to make no effort to build up a large school, but to bend all energies toward establishing a school which should graduate only teachers of superior efficiency. In determining upon this policy the Board took measures to guard against two causes of failure which in the history of normal school administration, have been more or less destructive: (1) a low standard of admission, which has made it impossible to give, in the limited period of normal school instruction, necessary academic instruction, the pedagogics of education, and adequate practical training; (2) personal and political interference in the administration of the school. At the meeting of the Joint Board of California Normal Schools held July, 1899, immediately after the organization of the San Francisco Board, a resolution was adopted providing that graduation of accredited (high) schools with credentials for admission to the State University should be accepted as equivalent to the first two years of the regular normal school course of four years. The San Francisco school organized upon the authority of this provision. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
