By David Newman

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 24 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.1in. Disguised emotional manipulation is a delusive form of exercising control on somebody. Otherwise stated, it happens when a person provides the hidden methods or his personal tactic to change the way of thinking of the other individuals, adjustment of the perceptions and behavior with a personal interest in order to gain both control and power. The emotional manipulators use words that are attractive, pleasant, that play on our feeling of guilt or sympathy, so often we don't care about the instincts and don't know how to respond. The main idea of the emotional manipulator is just deceive people to force them making or giving a manipulator what he wants. I'm happy if you have never heard of manipulation or emotional manipulators! It's great! But you have to keep eyes skinned, chapter one could provide you with all possible information. Chapter two contains the warning signs of the manipulative actions that could be disclosed at once. Reviewing them could help you to understand manipulative individuals almost at the beginning. Unfortunately, the majority of us is being controlled during the life and...
