CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 254 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.6in. Just after Rumor came close to losing her life and the snake of the cartel had been unveiled, Moses met his demise at the hands of Jamaur-- the dread head who swore his honor to Zeus in order to do business with him. Cousin Rico is forced to come back into the United States to help piece his family's company back together, yet there are still missing pieces to a certain mystery as to who Jamaur takes his orders from. In this winding installment, learn of who has to step up to the plate alongside Zeus in order to go head to head with the Dominican Mafia and the rebellion. Witness Rumor break out of her shell and learn the ropes of the business. Pay close attention to new allies as they are formed and old friendships and how they become tarnished by secrets and new titles. The only stinging questions in this roller coaster ride of a mere cartel tale would be who are the surviving members when the war is over. Does Zeus stand a chance at keeping...
