

The Dream of a Summer Night: A Fantasy Play in Three Acts

By Paul Meurice

Borgo Press. Paperback. Condition: New. 132 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.3in. In this 1886 French adaptation of William Shakespeares A Midsummer Nights Dream, Paul Meurice (1818-1905) focuses on the hilarious portion of the Bards play in which the would-be actor, Bottom, is transformed into a ludicrous ass whom the fairy queen Titania is forced by enchantment to love. Meurices version of Dream is a particularly smooth, timeless, and relatively modern rewrite of the original in prose. Meurice did more adaptations of Shakespeare than any of the other French Romantics, working with Alexandre Dumas, Pre on a version of Hamlet, and with Auguste Vacquerie on Falstaff. First Translation into English. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
