Samuel Clemens wrote The Adventures of Tom Sawyer 'mainly for the entertainment of boys and girls' but also 'to try pleasantly to remind adults of what they once were them-selves' (Preface). What is the difference between children and adults - Above all, their degree of maturity. But what is essential for the transition from child to adult, for the maturation - Essential is to form an own individuality; to be something unique you have to distinguish from everything else. Therefore, we have to leave our own marks in order to become individuals. Every child has to find this 'unique own' in adolescence. Not only bad boys need to revolt against and...
