The goal of this marketing plan and strategy book is to make you an absolute marketing pro! When it comes to your business, you must shoot for maximum results. Your business depends on the quality of your marketing plan, strategy and the execution of your marketing plan. This book was designed with one thought in mind: to empower you to become a great marketer. Don't settle for beginner level books. Marketing is an area where you must be the absolute best you can be in order to get customers and grow your business. How the book is structured: The book starts with marketing basics and fundamentals of how to write a marketing plan, and how to think about your marketing strategies. Once your marketing fundamentals are solid, the book dives into intermediate and advanced marketing strategies that you can use for your business today. The book is composed of these chapters: 1) Marketing basics and fundamentals 2) Offline marketing strategies 3) Advanced social media marketing plan that truly works and will reach great scale 4) SEO (search engine optimization) 5) Further marketing strategies 6) Case studies outlining marketing strategies successfully used by various companies. When you are done with this book, my hope is that you will be able to create a fantastic marketing plan for your business, and that the book will help to empower you to create a winning marketing strategy which will help you out-compete your competitors.
