By Dickens

Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from All the Year Round, Vol. 2 Nor was it amongst the farmer and manufacturing classes alone that Mr. Joyce received pledges of support. Several of the neighbouring county gentry and clergy, who had hung back during Mn, Boken ham s candidature, enrolled themselves on the committee of the new comer; and one of his most active adherents was Mr. Ben thall. It was not until after due delibera tion, and much weighing of pros and cons, that the head master of Helmingham Grammar School took this step; but he smiled when he had thoroughly made up his mind, and muttered something to him self about its being a shot for Madam in more ways than one. When he had de cided he was by no means underhand in his conduct, but went straight to Mr. Cres well, taking the opportunity of catching him away from home and alone, and told him that the Benthall family had been staunch Liberals for generations; and that, however much he might regret being Op posed in politics to a gentleman for whom he entertained such...
