Xulon Press, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . In this Christian autobiography, God and Me by Sharon Davis, a voice speaking to her begins her journey to improve her relationship with God through prayer, trust, and worship. She had already been saved as a child, but she was not walking the path God wanted for her. She had to learn to embrace His choices for her life to find true intimacy with Him. Once thinking that His Word was just a beautiful, encouraging book, she saw His promises manifest themselves into her life. A series of life changes brought her to realize that she needed spiritual revitalization, and the only way to get it was by studying the Bible and praying to God. Through diagnoses with multiple health conditions including sarcoidosis, cancer, and multiple sclerosis, the author had to find her unique relationship with God and depend on him to find healing. Through career changes, health issues, and personal obstacles, she had to relearn what talking with Him was supposed to be like.
