Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Catalogue of Swanbrough Stock Farm: The Property of J. W. Swanbrough, Waukegan, Illinois After over twenty years experience in breeding, handling and developing horses owned by myself and other parties, I ought to know the qualities most desired by the public in the road carriage and turf horse, and have selected my horses to meet those requirements. My stallions are standard and registered - except Lord Lytton - and are all choicely bred and individually good. They have been selected not only for their rich breeding in speed and blood lines, but also on account of their size, bone, substance, finish, quality and perfect soundness. All can not breed winners on the turf, but if the farmer breeds a horse with size, style and action, he can always sell them for a remunerative price, and the more speed they show and the better they are bred the more money they will bring. Farmers should not sell their standard fillies, but keep them and breed to a standard horse of the most fashionable breeding, and they soon will have stock that will bring them double what their non-standard stock would bring, and have a more ready sale. A few dollars should not keep any farmer or breeder from using a good stallion. You can not afford to breed to a cheap or non-standard horse at the present day. In offering my horses for service, I offer as well and fashionably bred and individually as good horses for the service fee, as can be found in any stud in America. My stallions and horses in training are kept at the Waukegan Fair Grounds, where I have a...
