Three men, she thinks are her friends, ask her to come for a drive. They take her to a park and rape her. Mortified, she hides it. She finds she is pregnant. She knows officials will take her baby. Rape was bad enough, losing her child is unthinkable. She runs away, she will not let this most awful thing happen In Melbourne she seeks to build a new life, just her with a tiny baby. Life is unbelievably hard, no money, no food, no one to help her. In desperation she becomes a prostitute, her least bad option. But authorities discover her age and seek to take her child. She flees again to Broome, builds a new respectable life. But her story is discovered - now she is pursued again. With nowhere else to go she drives far into the desert.
