FBC LTD, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Popular Government, Vol. 32: November 1965 The advantages of specialization were recognized by the General Assembly in an additional respect. Sec. 7a-l47 provides that, in a three-or - more judge district, if the chief judge and the Administrative Officer concur, one or more judgeships may be designated as specialized judgeships. In each case the specialty must be designated in advance and filed with the State Board of Elections. A candidate for a district judgeship desiring to specialize, for example, in domestic relations or traffic matters, could file for such a specialized judgeship. This provision has the advantage of permitting both the candidate and the voter to know in advance the nature of the candi date s duties. A specialized judge would, however, in the interest of efficient utilization of judicial manpower, be subject to general assignment by the chief judge, when so needed, and for this reason he would have at all times the full powers of a regular district judge. This provision for specialized judgeships cannot be utilized in any judicial district the first time judges are elected, however, as there will be no chief judge with whom the Administrative Officer can concur in designat ing a specialty. The earliest year this provision can be effective is The delay was deliberate, to provide ample opportunity to observe the workings of the new system, and to weigh the feasibility of voter participation in this limited type of statutory specialization.
