

The Ghost of Port Chicago (Paperback)

By Miriam Matthews

Miriam Matthews, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .It all ended on a hot July evening in 1944 but that was just the beginning for one sailor and the woman he loved. Amee McGee's life was just beginning. The vivacious little blonde had her first job, a secret love and the world at her eighteen-year old fingertips. Now if those pesky Nazis would just quit causing trouble, her world would be perfect! She never dreamed it could all end so quickly. But endings are often just new beginnings. Seaman Grady O Sullivan had eyes only for his Amee. So young and beautiful, she made his world spin and his heart dance. But a Captain's daughter was off limits to an enlisted man. He never had the chance to tell her how much he loved her before the gigantic explosion at Port Chicago took her life. Now she haunts his shattered existence. and the present day military base, MOTCO. A man can't suffer forever and time is finally running out for Grady and Amee both. Restricted to the base where she died, the frantic ghost has spent over...
