Relationships are like puzzles with some being problematic to work out and others fairly complicated but less difficult to figure out where the pieces fit. Nevertheless, relationships are similar to puzzles, in that, you keep working at it until all the parts come together creating a beautiful picture. Think about it, relationships are wonderful but demands hard work and perseverance before the pieces are joined as one. Relationships are captivating mysteries where individuals find ways of brining and keeping the pieces attached. The purpose of this book is to inspire, uplift, teach, and energize persons to uncover and understand the possibility of having a fulfilling and rewarding relationship. Saying I love you is more than just speaking words. This book offers basic instructions for determining the type of relationship you want either for a lifetime or just in passing. It educates and in most cases reminds us about practical ways and our goals and aspirations for getting involved in relationships. Life is all about choices and when the time is taken to make well thought out ones the pieces of the puzzle may or may not be easy to put together but in the end masterpieces have been created with your specifications. In order to unravel the mysteries of relationships and overcome barriers whether married or single one must first discover or rediscover what a relationship is as well as the purpose and goal of the relationship.
