In Her Eyes

By Rhonda Brown

Paperback. Condition: New. Michael Maxwell was one of the very few people psychic Samantha Lopez could not read. He was good-looking, charming, and made her feel special, so the fact that she couldnt tell what he was thinking did not seem to be important. When he proposed within weeks of their meeting, she said yes. Shortly after bringing his bride to his home following a fantasy honeymoon, however, Michaels personality began to change. He was no longer the considerate man she had married. Sam found Michaels house to be cold and stark, lacking any charm or warmth, and her new husband began to exhibit those same qualities. When she met Winifred, her new mother-in-law, she saw that mother and son were just alike, even to the type of house they owned. She began to doubt the wisdom of marrying him so quickly. How well did she really know this man Where was the funny, carefree person she had fallen in love with While taking some time away for herself, intending to make a decision about whether to continue with the marriage that was no longer what she had envisioned for a lifetime, Sam had a prophetic dream. In this dream she...
