

The Artistic Edge: 7 Skills Children Need to Succeed in an Increasingly Right Brain World

By Lisa Phillips

The Artistic Edge. Paperback. Condition: New. 148 pages. Dimensions: 8.4in. x 5.5in. x 0.6in. This book explores why leadership skills taught through the arts are what young people need most to be successful in life. Competition for jobs is fierce and global and the current state of the world requires an ability to constantly adapt to change. Is the coming generation ready to face the realities of life after school? Education in the arts should not be reserved for the talented few, but promoted as the means for all children to develop skills in: creative thinking, confidence, problem-solving, accountability, relationship building, communication, adaptability and dreaming big. Lisa's book explores how to give children a competitive edge by giving them an artistic one! Foreword written by Raymond Aaron, New York Times bestselling author of Chicken Soup for the Parents Soul.
