ECHOES OVER WATER (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2010. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Echoes Over Water is a novel tracing two sailing journeys across the Atlantic Ocean, one modern, one ancient. The story is patterned on Celtic myths of legendary lands of bliss in the western seas (as in Arthur's Avalon) and first contact between European and New World cultures. Both men are seekers and musicians, who share some similarities of temperament, and perhaps a slim, other, enigmatic something. There are significant women in their lives, women they leave, women they meet, women who often seem to understand that big picture just a shade better than these two. They too become part of the leaving from and journeying to that correspond to the larger historical, spiritual, and romantic goals of the questing voyage. The juxtaposition of the time periods gives a glimpse into similarities in human nature across time, in Barbara Tuchman's phrase, A Distant Mirror. This analysis aside, it is...
