Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Darkness.in a Flash is a collection of short stories by first-time author Elizabeth John. Short in nature but big in scope, the author has written a range of stories that address various themes of fear in a myriad of ways. From everyday, real-life terrors to horrors that are supernatural in scope, the author has created a book of tense, tight tales that is sure to engage any reader and keep them on the edge of their seat. The stories in Darkness.in a Flash will take the reader on a voyage of fear as the reader encounters tales that are as different in tone as they are in subject matter. In The Vampires that We Know, the author recounts a tale of terror with a completely new and original take on vampire lore. In The Sailor and the Song, the reader will revisit an old Greek myth to a new and frightening conclusion. In The Hyena's Daughter, the reader will travel to a tiny village in Africa where an old curse and a wedding are preludes to a horrifying act of revenge. In The Other Side of the Closet, an act of courage takes on a new and curious twist, to horrifying result. In The Love of a Madman, the reader gets a peek into what a madman takes for love. In these and the other stories of Darkness.in a Flash, the reader is sure to find a treasure of dark tales that will haunt them long after each story is done.
