Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Friendship Interrupted is for any woman who asks, What happened to our friendship? Like an adventurous and enlightening road trip with girlfriends, this book has unexpected curves and important discoveries. There is laughter . and tears. In this book, the solutions to the umpteen things that can interrupt friendships are easy to find and easy to read. Reliable self-help advice in the What you can do sections are realistic and sensible. Importantly, the ultimate guidance of God s word and wisdom is blended throughout, to bring women much more than the authors or words written on a page can provide. Unlike most books on women s friendships that delight in the qualities that make a perfect friend, this book looks at a multitude of challenges women have identified as difficult, hurtful, confusing, or complex. These interruptions can be temporary or become permanent; either way a rift or rupture of a valued friendship causes strain and strife that needs answers. The good news, changes and choices can be made to mend and maintain valued friendships, or know when it is best to simply let go and move on. This book has a fresh perspective that sheds new light on individual habits, actions and reactions, and those of others. The issues addressed are universal; the quotes from women are real, and the challenges they share range from mild to toxic. This book inspires, and it is a great help to women who want to be better equipped to respond in positive and healthy ways to their real-life friendship challenges: emotionally, mentally, physically, and spiritually. The following sections are found in each chapter: Candid quotes from women s lives introduce the variety of...
