

The Four Cosmic Pillars as Singularity (Paperback)

By Peet (P S J) Schutte

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . This book is in mono colour. In the precise middle of all objects in rotation is a precise centre dividing the object in sectors that will start the spinning initiation from that centre point. But the spinning object will have a middle point, a very specific centre point that does not spin and only holds P as a specific value. One value such a line cannot have is zero because zero does not start any line and therefore the value of the line must be infinite, just as described in accordance and by the definition of singularity That point albeit hypothetical, is also as much a reality none the less is where that point must be standing still because every line running from that point in opposing directions are also in opposing directional spin to each other. The cosmos is made up of lines connecting everything to everything and that is why we have to look at lines. A line or spot starting at zero would therefore be shorter than the shortest line possible. For obvious reasons can no line, or...
