This book is packed full of short poems and micropoetry with a sincere touch of mystery and a strong feeling of mixed emotions written with the ease of my pen during the late hours of the night. JAnn s poems follows a sense of loss with a sense searching of something she or anyone could be lingering for in life. Quietly she sits Knowing her pen Will paint the words Of a futuristic feast Of daydreams As beautiful as waterfalls. Wasted Book Review I read Wasted and I discovered an amazing poetry book written by JAnn Bowers. With her poetry she took me to a world of loneliness and despair of a broken heart who found hope going through waterfalls, stars, moon, and night. Traveling in memories and illusions the poet carries us to a world of secrets some sad, some full of hope and strength. Finally taking us to sunshine and paradise. In every poem I was able to feel her because she has a good way with words. Short but deep poems presenting an inner struggle that lets us feel connected with her. I highly recommend this book to anyone looking for a good moment of quiet reading. I really enjoyed reading Wasted because as I went through the pages I could not stop reading because it felt like it was a story in which every chapter was unveiling the strength and capacity of recovering from a broken heart. StephanieCk Wasted Book Review Wasted is a string of poems that JAnn twirled into words full of meaning of loneliness, bit sad and a huge dash of hope. Her poetry flows from one poem to the next...
