Oliver Phipps, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The year is 1825, and a small Native American village has lost many of its people and bravest warriors to a pack of Lofa; huge beasts humanoid in shape but covered with coarse hair. The creatures are taller than any normal man, and fiercer than even the wildest animal. Rather than leave the land of their ancestors, the tribe chooses to stay and fight the beasts. But they re losing the war, and perhaps more critically, they re almost without hope. The small community grasps for anything to help them survive. There is a warrior on the frontier known as Orenda. He s already legendary across the west for his bravery and honor. Onsi, a young villager, sets out on a journey to find the warrior. Orenda will be forced to choose between almost certain death, not just for himself, but also his warrior wife Nazshoni and her brother Kanuna, or a dishonorable refusal that would mean annihilation for the entire village. The crucial decision is only the beginning, and Orenda will soon face the greatest test of his life; the challenge that could turn out to be too much even for a warrior of legend.
